

FREE

Improving Neonatal Outcomes, Reducing Perinatal Mortality, Implementation of the Saving Babies Lives Care Bundle V2

Afternoon Educational Seminar - Wednesday 11 December 2019
Conference Centre, Edgbaston Cricket Ground

Hosted by Birmingham and Solihull Local Maternity System for:
Obstetricians, Doctors in training, Midwives, Sonographers and students

Birmingham & Solihull United
Maternity and Newborn Partnership

UNIVERSITY OF
BIRMINGHAM

NHS
Birmingham Women's and Children's NHS Foundation Trust

NHS
University Hospitals Birmingham
NHS Foundation Trust

Places are limited, book yours today by emailing project.bump@nhs.net or visit the website 'Eventbrite' and search for Saving Babies Lives Birmingham

13.00 - 13.45				Registration and Networking lunch
13.45 - 13.50		Introduction		Richard Kennedy Carmel McCalmont		Medical Director, BSoL LMS Director of Midwifery, BSoL LMS
13.50 - 14.20		National overview - lessons from implementation VI Saving Babies Lives CB		Katie Morris		Senior Clinical Lecturer in Maternal Fetal Medicine Institute of Metabolism and Systems Research, University of Birmingham
14.20 - 14.50		The perinatal mortality challenge - can we reach the target?		Liz Draper		Professor of Perinatal and Paediatric Epidemiology, Perinatal Programme Co-lead for MBBRACE-UK, University of Leicester
14.50 - 15.10		CTG competency assessment to reduce CTG related incidents		Louisa Davidson		Midwifery Practice Facilitator University Hospitals Birmingham NHS Foundation Trust
15.10 - 15.30				Tea Break
15.30 - 16.00		Learning from perinatal death reviews		Tracey Johnstone		Maternal and Fetal Medicine Consultant Obstetrician, Birmingham Women's and Children's NHS Foundation Trust
16.00 - 16.30		Team working and human factors in incidents		Mary Salama		Consultant Paediatrician, Birmingham Women's and Children's NHS Foundation Trust
16.30 - 17.00		Novel interventions in fetal growth restriction		Mark Kilby		Professor of Fetal Medicine, Lead for Centre of Women's and Children's Health and the School of Clinical and Experimental Medicine, University of Birmingham and Clinical Lead in Fetal Medicine, Birmingham Women's Hospital
17.00				Meeting close			